

LUCA PELLEGRINO

Luca Pellegrino, singer and poly-instrumentalist, is an author and interpreter of tradition.

After classical studies, he devoted himself to popular music of his area, the Southern Alps and Occitania. Subsequently, he tackled studies related to African-American music, world music, sacred music, improvisation and jazz, didactics of music and music therapy.

There are many formations and meetings that have contributed to his artistic growth: Alberto Fantino, Albert Giuliano, I sarvan and Lhi jarris, Sergio Berardo, Dario Anghilante and Aire de Prima, Gerardo Cardinale, Remo Degiovanni and La mesquia, La Peiro Douso, Michel Bianco and Corou de Berra.
